Special Notices.

The English and American Printing-House Squares Contrasted !- Our Mr. BAKER, who is now maveling in Europe, visiting all the principal Type Founderies Princing and Publishing Houses, with especial reference to im-prevenents in Typography, writes from London:

"I listely went to the English Printing House Square, and found it to be a small, dark, gloomy, out-of-the-way place, as far inferior to our wide, open, public, and aplendid Square, as the English are in their Printing Presses and Machinery, compared ith curs. The London Printers are astoniched to know that we with cers. The London Frintiers are astonanced to know that we have so noble a place devoted to Printing, and are very much pleased with our 'STRAM PRESS,' containing views of The Square, and its Neighborhood." The New Building of The Daily Times justly excites their admiration; they have nothing apng it here. In fact, they are behind us in everything, and m tething more than in their Printing-Houses- Printing-House Square, especially."

As our "FRINTING-HOUSE SQUARE" is thus be coming so well known abroad, we propose to make its featur-still more familiar in every part of the United States, and wi farnish, without charge, fine Electrotype Engravings of The Square to Newspaper Publishers who desire to give their read ers a View and Description of this most prominent Printing lo cality in the world. The Electrotype Cut referred to, will be sent apon application, to any part of the country. Copies of "Tu STEAM PRESS" will be forwarded by mail upon receipt of a eest postage stamp. Address

"The design of this Book is to show Italy in her Past and Present, so that the reader may understand on what grounds she bases her expectancy of a glorious Fature. With this view, the Author, who has traveled largely through Europe, and her resided for a considerable period in Milan, describes places with which she is acquainted, and personages whom she intimately knew."
In an introduction to the work, Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Literary and Foreign Editor of "The Press" (Philadelphia), very warmly eulogiase its design and execution.
